NEW - LOCAL RETREAT

breathe's heart to heart retreat
October 20-23, 2022

That last 3 years have packed a punch that we can't ignore. Without dwelling on the past, we will acknowledge the wounds, and the trauma that has resulted from them. From the place of acceptance, we move forward.

Using the tools of inquiry, yoga, meditation, nutrition, and community, each person will discover their own self-care regime to heal the heart, head, and body. Layering small steps will result in longevity and vitality that a quick fix can't accomplish.
